

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a disgrace. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Based on what they have planned, forcing their stations to run their anti Kerry campaign message without also airing an anti Bush campaign message should be a violation and should not be allowed by the FCC. This is what happens when large companies control the airwaves, we get biased reporting.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
